HANNAH: A MODEL FOR CHRISTIAN MOMS

Final Song

Benediction

New in the Rosedale Library:

A book by Siang-Yang Tan. Moving from self-serve Christianity to total servanthood. This is a call for the Church to come back to its primary role of serving Christ and others.

Hannah - A Model for Christian Moms

1 Samuel 1 – 2:11

- Although Hannah’s story is found in the book of 1 Samuel, she lived during the time of the Judges and gave birth to the final Judge of Israel – a righteous and faithful priest named Samuel

- This morning we will examine together the story of one of the greatest and most godly women in the Bible who is a model for future generations of moms

I. Hannah’s Pain (vv. 1-8)

- 1) A Bigamous Marriage
- 2) A Barren Womb
- 3) A Belligerent Rival

Application: Hannah experienced the same kind of problems and pain that Christian women continue to experience today. The Christian life is not a problem-free life, but we can be sure that God is sovereign over all of the trials we experience.

II. Hannah’s Prayer (vv. 9-19)

- 1) A Broken-hearted Prayer
- 2) A Selfless Prayer
- 3) An Earnest Prayer
- 4) A Faith-filled Prayer

Application: Hannah’s close relationship with the Lord shines brightly against the dark backdrop of Israel during the period of the Judges. Moms – make sure that prayer is a top priority in your life that a lifestyle of worship is being modelled regularly before your family.

III. God’s Provision (vv. 20-28)

- 1) God’s work within Hannah’s body
- 2) God’s work on Hannah’s husband

- 3) God’s provision for Israel’s need
- 4) God’s preparation of Samuel

Application: Hannah realized that our children do not just belong to us – they belong to God!
- “Hannah is a reminder that mothers are the makers of men and the architects of the next generation.” – John MacArthur

III. Hannah’s Praise (2:1-11)

- 1) Gratitude for God’s provision
- 2) Praise for God’s character
- 3) Submission to God’s sovereignty

Application: Hannah’s son and Hannah’s song of praise anticipate the story and song of another woman named Mary who would give birth to an even greater Son – Jesus Christ! (cf. Luke 1:46-55)
