Mission of the Week

Aileen John - NCEM

“This past semester was far more challenging for me than my first semester at New Tribes Mission Training Centre. Many times I asked the Lord to help me to keep working when I was tempted to quit studying or turn in mediocre work. He always undertook for me. Now I can say that I have learned to solder and do some basic wiring. I learned how to begin to figure out the grammar of a foreign language and have had a small taste of language learning. Student teaching class gave me the opportunity to do what I love to do. I had the privilege of sharing both my testimony and a devotional with the class. The last week of school I had to give a church missionary presentation. It was wonderful to be able to introduce my non-Canadian classmates to Canada’s Aboriginal people and NCEM.”
