“There is a difference between having an opinion that God is holy and gracious, and having a sense of the loveliness and beauty of that holiness and grace. There is a difference between having a rational judgment that honey is sweet, and having a sense of its sweetness. A man may have the former, that knows not how honey tastes; but a man can't have the latter, unless he has an idea of the taste of honey in his mind... There is a wide difference between mere speculative, rational judging anything to be excellent, and having a sense of its sweetness, and beauty. The former rests only in the head, but the heart is concerned in the latter.”

Missionary of the Week

TEAM (Mexico) – Brenda Matthews

“TEAM Mexico held its Annual Conference in January. It was held in Loreto, about a 4 hour drive north. The setting was beautiful and the messages inspirational. We welcomed some new missionaries to the field and it was good to be with others that I met at last year’s Conference. The last Friday of every month El Faro has a half-night of prayer. Last week it was really cold and we wanted to celebrate the last event in the roofless auditorium, so we had a campfire there. We appreciated the warmth of the fire as we sang and prayed. The construction of the roof did begin this week – but not without another delay. Please pray for the bureaucracy to be worked out and for the construction to proceed without incident.”
