GIVING THANKS TO GOD

Final Song

Benediction

“In today’s passage, Paul directs his thanksgiving to God for the gifts of grace He had given the Corinthians—‘all kinds of speech and with all knowledge’ (v. 5). This was an interesting choice for Paul; as the letter continues, it becomes clear these very gifts were at the root of the problems causing discord within the Corinthian church. It might seem that Paul was using sarcasm when he thanked God for qualities he then went on to critique. But this fails to appreciate the range of Paul’s thought. As one scholar wrote, “Paul ... believes in, practices, and celebrates the reality of God’s spiritual gifts. He can easily distinguish between the use and abuse of spiritual gifts.” God’s gifts are real and Paul’s confidence rests in the Giver, who is worthy of thanks for these gifts, even when they’re being misused.”

Free Christian Books: An assortment of Christian books that once belonged to Bruce Mowat and Darryl Schoenfeldt are available this morning in the gym. Please feel free to browse the table and take one or two books that will help you in your walk with the Lord.

Lord’s Table/ Benevolent: Please note that next Lord’s Day we will be celebrating the Lord’s Table and collecting a benevolent offering. Benevolent gifts are used to meet special needs that arise from within our Church family and can be designated above and beyond your regular offering.

Open Arms Mission: For the month of February we will be collecting canned soup for Open Arms. A big ‘thank-you’ to everyone who participated in the Coldest Night of the Year by walking or donating. By Gods’ grace the mission exceeded their fundraising goal of $20,000!

New in the Rosedale Library:

Brother's Keeper (DVD): One twin brother is framed for murder leaving the other twin struggling for a way to save his brother. While revenge may seem sweet, this movie is a powerful reminder that only forgiveness can truly heal.
