THE REASON FOR OUR HOPE

Final Song

Benediction

“These two truths are complementary to each other – the virgin birth and the physical resurrection of our Lord; for it is true that He was begotten of the Holy Spirit, and that He was begotten again from the dead by divine power, then His is the one authoritative voice in all the universe which should command the attention of all men everywhere. But if you do away with those two cardinal doctrines, you reduce Jesus to the level of a mere man; by so doing you rob His testimony of all authority; you put Him merely in the class of the sages who have uttered words which are wise, and which men may follow; but by that interpretation He ceases to be a voice from God. No wonder the Apostolic Church gave witness of the resurrection; for it that can be proved, then every mouth must be stopped, and all the world become guilty before God.”
